

NAME: _____

Years 1 to 3

Mammal Mischief! Complete in Dugong Island.

This is Wuru the Dugong! She is a M_____ so she has thick skin to keep her warm when she is swimming in the water. She is warm-blooded and she has a sensitive snout. She has live young which suckle milk from her.

Draw and colour my...
 WHISKERS TAIL
 TEETH SNOUT
 SKIN

Draw my baby

Echinoderms Complete in Discovery Rock pools.

Echinoderms include sea stars, sea cucumbers and sea urchins. Their name 'Echino-derm' means spiky skin just like an echidna! They do not have a head or brain and some breathe through their bottoms!

- | | TRUE | FALSE |
|---|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| The sea star's mouth is underneath | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| The sea cucumber has sucker feet | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| It is safe to touch all creatures in the rock pools | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| The sea cucumber is NOT poisonous | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Draw:

Complete in Sydney Harbour, Dugong Island and Great Barrier Reef

The clownfish in the anemone

A hermit crab inside its shell

The eyes on the stonefish

NAME: _____

Years 1 to 3

Fill in the blanks! Complete at school

Frogs lay _____.

Baby frogs are called _____.

The Archerfish squirts _____ to catch it's prey.

Amphibians breathe through their _____.

Reptiles lay _____.

Reptiles have dry _____ on their body.

TADPOLES

EGGS

WATER

SKIN

SCALES

EGGS

Sharks galore! Complete in Shark Valley

Sharks are not mammals they belong to the FISH family. Some lay eggs and some have live births. Find two different types of Sharks on your journey through SEA LIFE Sydney Aquarium and draw them in the boxes.

What are my babies called? Complete in any zone.

Baby stingrays and sharks are called _____.

Baby fish are called _____.

Baby crabs are called _____.

kittens

pups

chicks

tadpoles

fry

larvae